WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS?

Data Protection Legislation gives you several rights. Unless there are legal exceptions, you can in principle exercise them free of charge. These rights may be restricted, for example when complying with a request that would disclose the Personal Data of another person, or when you ask us to delete information that we are legally required to retain or that we hold on the basis of our legitimate interests. To exercise your rights, you can apply here: DPO@infrabel.be.

If you have concerns that have not been addressed, you have the right to make a complaint to the Supervisory Authority at any time. We naturally encourage you to contact us in the first instance but, insofar as this right applies to you, you have the right to complain directly to the Supervisory Authority (<https://www.gegevensbeschermingsautoriteit.be/>).

Your rights are as follows:

RIGHT TO ERASE DATA

you have the right to erase your Personal Data processed by us as described in this Privacy Information if it is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was originally collected or processed, or if you have withdrawn your consent or if you have objected to a processing operation described in this Privacy Information and there is no other basis for the processing.

HOW LONG WILL WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We retain your Personal Data for as long as necessary to carry out the processing activities listed in this Privacy Information, or for the period that you have otherwise been notified or for as long as permitted by applicable law.
